

4-H Judge's Training Foods and Nutrition Exhibits

Two Opportunities Available

Thursday, April 22, 2010

4 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Rice County Extension Office
701 East Main, Lyons, KS

Host: Lori Shoemaker

Rice County Extension Agent

Saturday, April 24, 2010

9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Jackson County Fair Building
501 Dakota Ave., Holton, KS

Host: Nancy Nelson and Cindy Williams

Meadowlark Dist. Extension Agents

Objectives:

The objectives of this workshop are to improve participants' skills in using standards for conference evaluation, understanding ribbon systems, evaluating food and nutrition exhibits, and understanding food safety recommendations for fair exhibits.

Each participant will choose between learning more on evaluating food preservation exhibits or evaluating food gift baskets as part of the workshop.

Topics and Instructors:

"Judging Secrets Revealed to Keep the Focus on Youth," Diane Mack, 4-H Youth Development Specialist

"And the Winner Is... A Guide to Judging Foods," Karen Blakeslee, K-State Rapid Response Center Coordinator

"A Tisket, A Tasket A Prize Winning Food Gift Basket," Charlene Fyler, Sedgwick County 4-H Program Assistant

Cost:

$10 registration fee which includes a meal and resource materials. Make check payable to KSU. Registration is due April 9, 2010.

Questions:

Contact Diane Mack at 785-532-5833 or e-mail dmack@ksu.edu

Please bring a food item, food preservation item or food gift basket to be judged.

Pre-registration is through the NE Area Extension Office. Clip and return.

---

Registration for 4-H Judge's Training for Foods and Nutrition Due April 9

Name:

Address (street, city, state, zip code):

Telephone:

I plan to attend: Check One:  April 22 in Lyons or  April 24 in Holton

Check One:  Foods Preservation Session or  Food Gift Basket Session

List food item you plan to bring to have judged:

If you have special dietary needs, please note them here:

Registration fee is $10.00 and must be included with registration. Make check payable to KSU.

Mail Registration to:

Diane Mack, NE Area Extension Office, 1007 Throckmorton Hall, KSU, Manhattan, KS 66506